TO-MORROW WILL SETTLE IT

PATE OF THE WARRING MUSICIANS IN JUDGE SLOVER'S HANDS.

Closing Arguments Yesterday Gave Counsel a Chance for a Sharp Thrust or Two That Went Straight Home.

The crooked places in the path of the warring musicians will be made straight by Judge Slover to-morrow morning. At least, the court will make the effort. The troubles of the rival factions have taken up three days of the time of the circuit court in division No. 2 and the final arguments were made yesterday morning. Major Warner, for the leaguers, who are opposed to the musicians joining any other national musical organization and affiliat-ing with organized labor, closed for the leaguers. He denounced in vigorous terms the action of the federationists in transacting business after a restraining order had been secured against the leaguers. He declared the order to be a trick and subter-fuge and asserted that the federationists were guilty of contempt of court. were guilty of contempt of court.

During the argument the resolution prohibiting the musicians from taking uparms in the event of a local uprising was ridiculed by Major Warner,

"Was it the machinists who passed that resolution?" sarcastically asked Mr. Ingraham, attorney for the federationists,

"Machinists have too much mechanical sense to pass such a resolution," retorted
the major.

the major.

George M. Harding, of Cincinnati, attorney for the federationists, closed the argument, reviewing the troubles and declaring that the leaguers had no authority to suspend locals without a trial, or under any other circumstances, for joining the federate Judge Slover took the case under advise-ment and will hand down his decision to-morrow morning.

Ex-President Churchill, of the Defunct K. C. S. D. and S. Bank, Borrowed $100,000 and Settles for $25,000.

Henry P. Churchill, formerly president of the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings bank, is no longer indebted to the estate, which is now in the hands of Howard M. Holden, as assignee. Property valued at $25,069, at a conservative figure, above incumbrances, was yesterday transferred to Mr. Holden by Mrs. Churchill and Mr. Churchill's sister, Mrs. Charlotte E. Masten, of Michigan, in full settlement of the claims for $100,000 of notes given by Churchill. That is, $100,000 of the depositors' money was borrowed by Churchill and they will get $25,000, possibly a little more, in place of it.

they will get $25,000, possibly a little more, in place of it.

Mrs. Churchill conveyed to Mr., Holden a half interest in the Hotel Cunningham property, at Ninth and Oak streets, valued at $13,500 above incumbrances of about an equal amount; and also the property at 1400 Walnut street and Nos. 9 and 11 West Ninth street, estimated to be worth $94,000, exclusive of heavy incumbrances. These three pieces of property were in Mrs. Churchill's name. A large tract of land on Osage avenue in Armourdale, worth $25,000 above incumbrances, was in the name of Mr. Churchill's sister. Mr. Holden said ysterday that he thought $25,000 could easily be realized from the $35,000 equity represented by the four pieces of property named.

like Slover made an order releasing chill from all further liability to the te. Mr. Churchill filed an affidavit to effect that he had no interest in any estate whatever; that he owed $25,000 to his debts to the bank; that he had onal property worth only $500, and that income was only sufficient to support family.

his family.

The depositors will also realize $1,000 on notes for $5,000 given by William O'Neill, an associate of ex-President H. P. Churhill in an Arizona irrigation enterprise. Judge Slover yesterday authorized Assignee Holden to accept an offer of $1,000 for the notes, oh which judgment has been secured in Arizona. O'Neill claims that half of the $5,000 of stock which is collateral security for the notes belongs to Churchill, for whose accommodation half the debt was incurred.

When O'Neill shall have paid the $1,000 to Assignee Holden then one-half of the judgment for $5,000 will be satisfied; for the other half, Mr. Churchill still being liable.

"Scare" Was No Joke.

While engaged in a fight with Fred Chapman, Friday night, Frank Near, a salconkeeper at Independence and Grand avenue, dropped his watch from his pocket. He did not miss the timepeace until after the scrimmage was over. In the meantime a passerby had picked it up. Chapman claimed it and the man gave it to him. When Near learned that Chapman had secured his watch he had him arrested. In Justice Walls' court yesterday morning, Chapman gave up the watch and said he simply wanted to "scare" Near. His revenge cost him one day in jail.

The McCarty's Troubles Ended.

The sactarry's Tromas McCarty, who is charged by his wife, Mary McCarty, with vagrancy, was continued in Justice Spitz' court yesterday morning until next Saturday. When McCarty was arrested he promised to secure work and the justice released him on bond. He immediately secured work at Armours packing house and yesterday said he would aid his wife in supporting the family.

Court Briefs.

The second trial of Benjamin F. Cates for the murder of his cousin, Monroe Bales, last October, will begin in the criminal court to-morrow morning. Judge Slover yesterday sent the damage case of Charles Duerig against the Metropolitan Street Railway Company to Pettis county on a change of venue.

Judge Slover yesterday appointed I. P. Ryland special commissioner to take testimony in the replevin suit of Eugene Batavia, trustee, against ex-Sheriff O'Nelli.

Thomas Carrigan, who is charged with attempting to kill Jake Little with a knife on May 8, was arraigned before Justice Krueger yesterday. He gave $300 bond for his appearance May 14.

Judge Henry will hear arguments to-morrow morning in the matter of an appli-cation for a receiver for the "Big K. C. store." which is involved in complicated litigation as the result of its failure a few weeks ago. James Connell a small colored boy, who came acomed a small colored boy, who came near destroying Shoffield while attempting to drive a snake out of some hay by setting fire to it, was arraigned before Justice Walls yesterday morning on a charge of trespassing. He pleaded not cullty and his case was set for next Thurs day.

Police Officer Frank Merritt was lost in the land of dreams Friday night when Cars May and Joe Akers, two young white boys, carefully selected a dozen of his choicest pullets from the coop at the rear of his home, Nineteenth and Indiana avenue. The boys were stealing through the alleys with the booty evenly divided between them when Patroiman Grovernabbed them at the corner of Nineteenth and Chestnut avenue. They confessed their guilt before Justice Spitz yesterday morning and were sentenced to ten days in juil.

TRIAL TRIP OVER THE WEST SIDE ROAD A SUCCESS.

First Car to Be Run Goes Over the Entire Line Without a Hitch-A Model of Railway Construction.

The first car to be run over the West Side street railway (Wyandotte street line) left Twelfth and Wyandotte streets a few minutes after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Conway F. Holmes, general superintendent of the Metropolitan street railway, acted as motorman, and Walton H. Holmes, vice president and general manager of the company, as conductor. In the party which made the initial trip over the line were: Thomas Barratt, assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan company; A. S. Little-field, president of the American Construc-made the initial trip over the line were:

Thomas Barratt, assistant superintendent of the Metropclitan company; A. S. Littlefield, president of the American Construction Company, who built the road; E. M.
Frye, superintendent of the American Construction Company; C. E. Collins, superintendent of the Electric Insulation Company, who built the overhead work of the line; John S. Taft, R. J. Boyd, the contractor who did the paving work along the line; Charles Grover, electrician of the Metropolitan company; Fred Bloss, assistant electrician; Charles McGinley, roadmaster; W. B. Buckner, superintendent of the Twelfth street division of the Metropolitan; James Kane, roadmaster of the Grand avenue and Kansas City cable division, and W. H. Moore, superintendent of the Rossedale horse car line.

The car ran through to Rossedale. Everybody along the Southwest boulevard greeted the party with smiles, and there was an occasional cheer for the new line. A ball game in progress just above the crossing of the Memphis tracks at Rossedale was hastiiy postponed by the boys, who ran to cheer the car. The only opposition evident was on the part of the horses which have been drawing the bobtail cars on Southwest boulevard. Without exception they were frightened at the advent of the trolley, and various teams were with difficulty restrained by the drivers.

Returning, the car ran to the Second and Wandotte depot, At the Missouri, Kansas
& Texas Trust building several gentlemenentered the car, among them A. E. Stilwell, president of the West Side Street Railway Company; E. L. Martin, vice president of the Missouri, Kunsas & Texas
Trust Company; Robert Gilham, chief engineer of the Kansas City, Pittsburg &

EX-BANKER ARRESTED. Vice President of a Broken North Dakota Bank Is Found in Kansas City.

H. E. Arnold, who keeps a printing estab lishment at 20 West Missouri avenue, was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Halderman yesterday on a capias and will be taken to Minot, N. D., to answer in the United States court the charge of making false entries in the bank books. Arnold was vice president of the First National bank, of Minot, N. D., which failed some time ago, leaving a big deficit. When the government bank examiner went over the books he found false entries and entries that had been changed and the matter was laid before the federal grand jury.

Arnold, who was a farmer, is said to have given up nearly everything he possessed to try to save the creditors from loss. He claims that President Salyards is now under indictment and that he will be used as a witness against him. Arnold's friends say he was a small shareholder in the bank and was unaware that the books were being manipulated until the crash came. crested by Deputy United States Marsha

They Caused "Stepladder" Wilson to Flee in Wild Alarum From the Poor Farm.

"Stepladder" Wilson, who long ago ran his course in the North end, and was sent to the poor farm as an indigent, was again in the hands of the police yesterday. When the first warm breath of the spring time's gentle approach fanned across the fields at the poor farm, "Stepladder" bethought him of what work meant the coming harvest, and quietly slid away. When he struck his old haunts in the North end his appetite for "tanglefoot" returned and he gave in. He was soon in the hands of an officer for threatening to precipitate war between the Greeks and Turks in that section. He was fined in police court yesterday, but the fine was suspended with the understanding that he would return to the poor farm. "Stepladder" Wilson, who long ago ran that he would return to the poor farm. He went away smiling.

Can't Keep Out of Trouble.

Oscar Collins, a worthless negro, was ar Oscar Collins, a worthless negro, was arrested yesterday and sentenced to the workhouse for sixty days for vagrancy. He was only released a week ago, after serving a month's sentence on a like charge. When Collins was arrested before, a valuable diamond ring was taken from him. It was identified a few days ago by B. F. Crabtree, of Moberly, Mo., and the jeweler who sold it to him. Crabtree said the stone had been stolen from him a year ago on West Fourth street by two negro women.

Stockman, Not the Gun, Was Londed. F. D. Anderson, a stockman from Con-cordia, Kas., flourished a revolver in a "Buzzard" saloon in the North end yester-day morning while intoxicated. He was arrested and fined $50 in police court. He paid. His gun was unloaded and returned to him

POLICE BOARD WILL WIELD IT AT THE NEXT MEETING.

Cour Hours' Executive Session of the Commissioners Settles Some Points About Reorganizing the Force.

The police board met yesterday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock and remained in session until 6:15. Most of the time was spent in executive session, but, according to the commissioners, no action was taken toward police force. The commissioners even depolice force. The commissioners even de-clined to say what they had discussed dur-ing several hours in secret session, but enough was heard through open windows and gleaned from stray words dropped here and there to show that the members of the force who are on the ragged edge were un-der discussion. It is certain that some changes were decided on, and that another meeting of the board will see these changes carried out.

meeting of the board will see these changes carried out.

The only transactions of the executive session which were made public were the raising of the salary of Sergeant Frank Snow from $75 to $55 per month, in consequence of his having been appointed drill-master, and the adoption of a resolution that in future all supplies for the police department shall be bought by the city purchasing agent upon a requisition from the chief.

purchasing agent upon a requisition from the chief.

In open session the board got through with considerable business. The resignation of Detective John Baidwin, who has been sick for "everal months, was accepted, and he was allowed full pay to May 1. Bids for furnishing the summer suits of the officers for the department were received from Ed Broderick, J. J. Wolf and Nicoli. They were referred to Chief Vallins.

The application of D. J. Ritchey to transfer his license from 546 to 1202 Wainut was canvassed and decision reserved. The same people who opposed the granting of a license to W. H. Christie in this block oppose the license for Ritchey. The application of Miller & Curtis for a license at 625 Wyandotte street was rejected. This was opposed by Swofford Bros." Dry Goods Company, Smith-McCord Dry Goods Company, Smith-McCord Dry Goods Company, Smith-McCord Dry Goods Company and other large business houses who object to having a saloon in that block. Herman Forstreuter was given permission to transfer his license from Nineteenth and Troost to Eighteenth and Forest. The application of Samuel Fishman for a license at 2065 East Eighteenth street was laid over temporarily.

The special commission of Reuben Howard, a colored officer, who watches after wagons around market square for commission men, was revoked.

Band of Mercy Medals.

Band of Mercy Medals.

In answer to the many inquiries from both within and without the city regarding the Band of Mercy medals, the Humane Society announces that the five medals offered by the society for compositions on humane subjects are only for bands in the schools belonging to the Kansas City, Mo., school district. The compositions are to be written in the half hour given to the Band of Mercy work and the texchers are requested to select the best three from each band and hand them to the principals of their schools. These compositions will then be placed in the hands of the committees of laddes of the Humane Society who will, before the beginning of the fall term, make a selection of the five successful papers.

The medals were designed and manufactured for the Humane Society by Jaccard's and are five-pointed sterling silver starpins with lettering countersunk in blue enamel. They will be awarded at the beginning of the fall term and are to be worn during the school year.

Wandering Boy Stops Wandering. Edward Winkowski, a 17-year-old boy who ran away from his home at Los Angeles, Cail, four years ago, drifted into Kansas City several days ago, looking for help to get back to California. The mayor's secretary, E. Mont Reily, gave Edward the wherewithal to buy a square meal, and wired to Victor Winkowski, brother of the boy, and received an answer inclosing money to send him home. Since he ran away the boy has been all over the country, and he might have been wandering yet if he had not heard that his grandmother had died and left him some money.

More Pingree Patch Land Needed. The agricultural commission needs additional tracts of land in the southwestern part of the city. Large tracts are preferred.
